Purley Park Trust

Purley Park Trust is a charity that supports adults with learning disabilities. We're not here to make a profit. We simply aim to give people a far better level of care than they can get anywhere else. This also means that we don't fritter away money and or waste time 'marketing' our services. Instead, we rely solely on word of mouth recommendations from people that know us and trust us to do a great job.

As our mission statement says:

"We will be known for our integrity, our passion and our commitment to getting things right for each person we support"
